

We need a dedicated Minister with a powerful voice

#SEATATTHETABLE

HOSPITALITY NEEDS A POWERFUL VOICE

3.2 million employed directly, and 1.8 million dependant

£130bn contribution to the economy

but... no dedicated Minister in Parliament!

A petition for a Minister for Hospitality has been set up and currently has fewer than half of the required 100,000 signatures needed for debate in Parliament.

What could a Minister for Hospitality do?

Be the champion and guardian of Hospitality in Parliament, promoting the importance of the economic, social and employment contribution

Be fully invested and have deep understanding of this complex industry

Drive cohesive thinking and strategy at the top table inclusive of all sub sectors

Advance the status of Hospitality and Tourism

As friends of our industry, we need your help. The success and prosperity of hospitality affects our suppliers and supporters. What can you do?
